

Lenovo ThinkPad

Modern mobility and AI-accelerated productivity are must-haves for today's hybrid workforce—and the new Lenovo ThinkPad T14s Gen 6 i exceeds expectations. This 14" ultrathin go-everywhere next-gen AI PC is fueled by Intel® Core™ Ultra processors and Intel vPro® to deliver efficient performance so you can be more productive, more collaborative, and more secure. The integrated next-gen Intel Arc™ X^e2 GPU propels graphics performance to new heights, while the Copilot+ PC experience elevates efficiency with features like Cocreator for AI-generated images, Live Captions for easier collaboration, and Windows Studio Effects for better videocalls. Plus, by running local AI apps on your device instead of in the cloud, your data and IP are more personalized, proactive, and protected.

You'll love the best-in-class UX of this small-but-mighty dynamo, starting with the all-day unplugged productivity enabled by the huge customer replaceable (CRU) 58Whr battery, Wi-Fi 7, and 5G Sub6 connectivity. The 3M DBEF5 filter boosts the WUXGA touch panel to a crisp 400nits brightness, and the Communication Bar, which houses the 5MP+IR camera, allows for an impressive 88% screen-to-body ratio for big views. Energy efficiency is prioritized as well, with up to 32GB on-package memory and a thermal design with rear exhaust fan. User-facing Dolby Atmos speakers, the ThinkPad keyboard with accessibility features, and a CRU battery for easy repairability round out the wow factor. Your on-the-move ambition has met its match with the Lenovo ThinkPad T14s Gen 6 i.
